Old Time Records — The Old Methodist Exhorters.

We have recently been shown the original certificate of one of the well known Methodist Exhorters of this country, which reads as follows:

"This may certify that Amos Martin is approved as an Exhorter in the Bay of Quinte Circuit. "By Order of the Quarterly Conference held in Adolphustown 1st day of July 1820

Leon Case

Presiding Elder.

"Amos Martin, here named, was a resident of Richmond Township, living on a farm a mile or two east of Selby, which has been in possession of some member of the Martin family since the very first settlement of the province. His father, Elijah Martin, was one of the U. E. Loyalist pioneers of this country and was granted that lot by the British Government. There he lived and died; There also lived and died his son Amos, to whom reference is now being made. He reared a large family there, all of whom, we believe, have now passed away

Dear Cousin:-

Trying to complete my records of Amos Martin and his previous history as Amos Tanner, I find that there is some difficulty in classifying his military record.

Was he on the side of the Revolutionary army in the battle of Bunker Hill in June, 1775?

Also in Rhode Island State in 1776 enlisted as Second Corporal. Afterwards he deserted.

Also in 1778 in Col. Lee's regiment. Was this also in the Revolutionary Army? And was he presumed to be serving with them after he deserted in 1775? Or did he desert after 1778 when he went to Vermont?

It would appear that after he came to Vermont and assumed the name of Martin he served with the Loyalist forces (and was recorded later as U. E. 16)

I suppose the Tanner family were all "disloyalists" and remained in the States, except for Amos.

I would appreciate your remarks concerning this and to clear it up in my own mind.

Yours sincerely,

Harold E. Martin

The Registrar,
Registry Office,
Waterloo, P. Q.

Dear sir:

While on a recent trip in the Eastern Townships I went to Knowlton, County Town of Brome, looking for land records and possible will of an ancestor, Amos Martin, who was living in Brome County in 1818, where he was listed as a yeoman. In Knowlton I was told that their records began about 1850, and that I should go to Bedford for earlier records. This I did, and was told there that their records went back to 1835. The registrar at Bedford said that I must look in Waterloo for anything prior to that date. Since I could not spare any further time for the trip to Waterloo, I have written this letter, asking for a search for land transfer, or will, of the following person:

Amos Martin, born Rhode Island about 1760; removed to Vermont in 1778; married there and removed to Quebec Province in 1784. From thence he went to Upper Canada where he lived until 1807. At his wife's death he returned to U. S. and eventually settled in Brome County. I have copy of a Power of Attorney dated July 18, 1818, which lists him as "Amos Martin, of Broom, in the County of Bedford, in the District of Montreal, in the Province of Lower Canada, yeoman." It has been said that he died there about 1837, leaving a possible son, Simeon.

Will you please forward an abstract of anything that you may find relative to this man, together with the amount of your fee, in order that I may render payment for this service.

Yours sincerely,

H. O. Burleigh

Amos Martin was a veterinary surgeon and seems to have been a man of good education. He had the honour of being the first constable on Amherst Island besides being one of the organisers of the Masonic Lodge at Bath. He also held responsible offices in the lodge, being both senior and junior wardens. There is also a record of Amos and Susannah witnessing the marriage of Silas Nichols and Elizabeth Heather, both of Ernesttown in 1797, 3rd May. They had the following children:

2. AMOS

3. WILLIAM, b. Sept. 27, 1791, d. Nov. 27, 1872.

4. MARY.

5. ANNIE, b. 1797, d. Sept. 22, 1880.

6. ELISHA, b. 1799, d. 1876.

7. DEBORAH.

8. SIMEON.

9. ELIAS (There is some doubt that there was a child of this name, but church records show the presence of this man in 1810 and as Amos 11 had a son Elias it is safe to assume that this man is a member of this family).

10. A boy was killed as a child. He was playing under the roots of an upturned tree while a hired man was cutting it in two. The butt and the roots fell back in place and killed the child. He is believed to be the second son.

MARTIN—In loving memory of Silas Martin, who died April 27th, 1931. We watched him suffer day by day, It caused us bitter grief, To see him slowly pine away And could not give relief. Long days, long nights he bore the pain, In wait for cure, but all in vain. But God himself knew what was best, He took him home and gave him rest. —Sadly missed by wife and children.

Death of Mrs. Martin

A very outstanding resident in the social and religious life of the Selby district passed away early Friday morning in the person of Emma Martin, wife of Henry Martin, after an illness of only a few days duration.

Mrs. Martin, who was in her 79th year, was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Denison and her entire life had been spent in the community where she was born.

She was a very prominent member of the Selby United Church and was held in high esteem by her wide circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin were united in marriage 53 years ago on February 2nd, and three years ago the golden wedding anniversary was fittingly observed. The funeral is to be held from her late residence to the Selby United Church on Sunday afternoon. Besides her husband she leaves one son Bert Martin, also four brothers, Alex. Denison, Toronto; Ben Denison, Selby; Datus Denison, Newburgh and James Denison, Napanee, R.R. A sister, Mrs. Lucas passed away sixteen years ago.

Active In Municipal Life, R. D. Martin Dies At 77

Wed. 12 Oct 1960

Former clerk - treasurer of Richmond Township, Robert Denison (Bert) Martin, died suddenly last Thursday at Hotel Dieu Hospital, Kingston. He was four days short of his 77th birthday.

Born in Richmond, Mr. Martin had operated an insurance business in Selby for a number of years and was president this year of the Lennox and Addington Mutual Fire Insurance Co., of which he had been a director for 25 years.

He retired two years ago from an active municipal career, during which he had not only served as township clerk and treasurer, but as relief officer, assessor and school board secretary-treasurer. He was also a past worthy patron of the Eastern Star and had been a member of Union Masonic Lodge, No. 9, Napanee, since 1938. He was active in Trinity United Church, Napanee, until the time of his death.

Mr. Martin leaves his wife, the former Agnes Mather, and two sons, Milton H. Martin, Napanee, and Charles Martin, Sudbury, and a daughter, Mrs. Bruce Huyck (Hazel), of Hay Bay.

VERONA COUPLE ARE MARRIED 54 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Martin Observed Auspicious Event on Tuesday.

On Tuesday, April 27th, Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Martin, Verona, celebrated their fifty-fourth wedding anniversary at the family residences. During the years that Mr. and Mrs. Martin have resided in Portland township, they have seen the village of Verona grow from a few houses to its present proportions.

Mr. Martin, who is a son of the late John Martin, was born in the township of Ernesttown, about a mile east of the village of Wilton. Seventy-three years ago last November, with his father, he left the old homestead and went to Portland township for the purpose of making his future home. Upon arrival at Verona, Mr. Martin's father was given the task of making his new home in what was then a solid woods. After nineteen years of cutting he was able, with the assistance of the members of his family, to clear the one hundred acre farm which is now owned by James McKeever.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Martin can well remember the first train over the Kingston and Pembroke railway.

For some years Mr. Martin was engaged in the hotel business in Verona being proprietor of the "Temperance House". After retiring from the active life, he had a bungalow erected in the village and Mr. and Mrs. Martin expected to spend the remainder of the days in this home.

There were eight children born to Mr. and Mrs. Martin. One of the boys made the supreme sacrifice during the Great War.

Hearty congratulations were extended to this old couple on Tuesday.

Deaths And Funerals

MRS. DAMON MARTIN

Mrs. Damon Martin was laid to rest in the family plot at Wilton Cemetery, on Monday afternoon, following the funeral service held at the home of her son, Stuart Martin, at Glenvale.

Pall-bearers were Clayton Redden, Robert Stuart, Stuart Carroll, Bert Roper, Will Bathgate and Clinton Shellington.

Flower-bearers were Raymond, Ralph and Robert Martin and Herbert Rose, all grandsons.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Laurie Price of the Pentecostal Church, Belleville. He was assisted by Rev. A. Slater of the Wilton Standard Church, and by Rev. G. Oldford and Rev. A. Casement, both of Kingston. O. Berry of Sydenham sang "Saved by Grace."

Mrs. Martin, who was in her 94th year, spent her early life in the Switzerville district, moving to Florida, Ont. (near Wilton) following her marriage, where she lived until a short time ago.

Her husband died 18 years ago. She had been living recently at the home of her son, Stuart, at Glenvale, and from there entered Hotel Dieu Hospital, Kingston, about 6 weeks previous to her death, on July 14.

Left to mourn her are three daughters, Mrs. Earl Lucas (Aleata) of Napanee, Lottie of Brooklyn, N.Y., and Mrs. Ernest Hepworth (Edith) of Woodstock; and three sons, Ross of Florida, Kenneth of Wilton and Stuart of Glenvale; also 10 grandchildren.

Dear Cousin:

I was pleased to receive your letter of June 13th. and will give you what information I can, some from correspondence but mostly from the Public Archives in Ottawa.

AMOS MARTIN

- (1) Born in Rhode Island State, probably somewhere between 1750 and 1765.
- (2) He left "my native place, Rhode Island State, in 1778" and came to Vermont.
- (3) In 1784 he "came into the Upper Province"
- (4) He was granted 300 acres of land by "Government instruction", but "had drawn only 100 acres".
- (5) In 1797 he petitioned for, and received, his additional 200 acres, for his two children born before the year 1789.
- (6) Five years before this, in 1792 he bought Lot 25, concession 5 in Richmond Township. Here his son Amos settled. It was the Martin home for four generations.
- (7) In 1807 he left Canada to visit his "friends", "I never had heard from my friends nor they from me."
- (8) Here, probably Rhode Island or Vermont, he was "taken sick and continued sick and unwell for a long time."
- (9) Then "I returned to the town of Broom". The town or township of Broom or Brome is in Bedford County.
The time was probably between the years 1810 to 1812.
- (10) His oldest son, Amos wanted title to Lot 25, Concession 5 in Richmond. So, in 1818 he wrote to his father at Brome. Then, apparently it was necessary for him to visit his father in order to get Power of Attorney, etc.
- (11) In January or February 1819 he came to Ernesttown to sign certain papers, and attest his loyalty. Also to prepare a Petition for title to the property in Richmond. A declaration by Isaac Fraser, J.P. declared that Amos Martin, Sen. had "appeared before him in person." in Ernesttown.

SIMEON MARTIN

- (1) Census of Richmond, 1861 shows Simeon Martin, age 52 (born in 1809). Born in U. S. A. His wife's name was Mary McKim (no doubt from Richmond or Ernesttown) In 1861 there were four children still at home, Susannah, age 23 (born in 1838) and three others. His oldest son, Lewis Nelson Martin was born in Upper Canada in 1836.
- (2) Lewis Martin farmed near Forest Mills on ~~XXXXX~~ what we can assume was his father's farm.
Here his oldest son Andrew Martin was born. He married my wife's aunt, Mariette Woods and we have a complete record of his descendants.
Here also was born the oldest child, Stella (or Estella) Martin. She was Simeon Martin's granddaughter and from her I learned the name of Simeon Martin's wife, and also that the Simeon Martin's of Forest Mills were distantly related to the Amos Martin, Jun. family of Selby.
- (3) My Uncle Henry Martin of Selby was a grandson of Amos Martin, Jun. He said the two branches of the Martin family were related.

(4) The circumstances of his being born in U. S. A. in 1809 is to say the least, mysterious. It would seem that Susannah (Ball) Martin was his mother, else why would he name his oldest daughter, Susannah.

It would also seem that he had been in touch with his brother William, who married Nancy O'Neil and lived in Camden township in 1861. William Martin and Simeon Martin each had a son called Lewis born about 1836. It could not have been a coincidence that these two Lewis Martin's happened to be so named. This, along with the other evidence, makes it plain that Simeon Martin in Richmond and William Martin in Camden were brothers.

(5) If it is true, as you suggest that Amos Martin, Sen. returned to Canada with his son Simeon aged about 15, then the date of his return was about 1824. (He had previously been in Ernesttown in 1819)

(6) It would seem that Simeon Martin at this time (about 1824) or later got in touch with his father's relatives in the area of Ernesttown. He may have stayed in Canada with them or he may have come back later. At any rate he located on a farm in Richmond somewhere between the years 1827 (at age of 18) and 1835 (when his first child was born) His age in 1835 would be 26.
in 1836

I have no other records of Amos Martin, Sen. after the evidence of his being "personally present in Ernesttown" in 1819.

Nor have I ever heard any mention of the name Tanner.

I would suggest that this lady and her daughter, if possible, could make inquiries in the town of St. Armand in Quebec in Bedford County. It was in this town that Leon Lalarme, a Notary, completed a Power of Attorney from Amos Martin, Sen. to Amos Martin, Jun. on July 20, 1818.

I would be glad to hear the result of their search, if any, some time.

Yours sincerely

Harold E. Martin

Dear Cousin:

Many thanks for your reply to my recent letter, and for the resume of Amos Martin's activities, as well as the most interesting data on Simeon Martin. I knew of Simeon, but had never definitely known what happened to him. The most interesting thing was that he was born in U. S. A., while all the other children of Amos, Sr., had been born in Canada, except Amos, Jr., who was born in Vermont in 1782. The reason for my interest will be evident later on in this letter, and it will tend to confirm the entirely new picture of the events in the life of Amos, Sr., and his family.

To begin, Amos Martin, Sr., was in Canada in Jan., 1784, with wife and 2 children, according to vol. 166 of Baldwin Papers. He was on Amherst Island in 1794, as I have informed you previously. He was first Senior Warden of Masonic Lodge, Bath, in 1803, and the last record of him in the Lodge was in 1807, the year in which, as he stated in his memorial, he returned to Rhode Island. In September, of the following year, the offertory of the Anglican Church, Bath, was 'by common consent given to William Martin for relief.' By this I assume that the money was for the deserted family of Amos, Sr. In 1809, the 'widow Martin' remarried Peter Asselstine. She lies buried in Wilton Cemetery. The tombstone shows that she died in 1844, aged 82 years, and that the stone had been erected by her son, William Martin. In other words, Amos had gone to Rhode Island in 1807, leaving behind his family near Bath. If all information is correct, he never returned until 1818 or 1819. He did not stay that time, as my Grandfather said that Amos returned in 1837, stayed the winter; returned to Vermont, ~~etc~~ or the Eastern Townships of Quebec, in company with his son, Amos, Jr., and that when he arrived there he was greeted by the people as Mr. Tanner.

I queried two other branches of the Martin family if they had ever heard of the name Tanner in connection with their family. I first talked with Elisha Martin, grandson of Elisha, brother of Amos, Jr., in 1925. He said that the family name should be Tanner, and confirmed the story told by my grandfather. Again, in 1940, I put the same question to William Martin, also a grandson of Elisha, and he, too, confirmed the story.

I wondered about the whole matter, and for many years I have been looking for an answer. Two years ago, when in State Library, Albany, N. Y., I looked through ALL the church records of Rhode Island for Amos Martin, with absolutely no success. Then, last May I looked for Tanners, and I found more than I suspected, as a close study of the attached Tanner Family History will confirm.

All three people questioned, as I have related above, agreed that Simeon was a son of Amos, Sr., by another wife. My grandfather stated that he was a big boy about thirteen or fifteen when Amos, Sr., brought him to Ontario. This may well have been the time he came here in 1819, Simeon then being about 11 years of age. This is confirmed by the fact that the census showed him born in U. S. A. In other words, Amos deserted his family, returned to Rhode Island, married another woman, even as his wife remarried, and fathered Simeon about 1809.

When you look over the attached Tanner story, you will note that Amos (Tanner) Martin named his sons, one for himself, one for his father, James; and two for his brothers, William and Elisha. You will also note that Amos, was at the battle of Dunker Hill, and deserted in 1777 or 1778, just in time for him to disappear and turn up in Vermont. Here, under the assumed name of Martin, he served in the militia twice in 1782, in Brattleboro (the home town of his wife, Suaannah Ball) Vermont.

You will also note that, in his father's will, Amos, Sr., received only half what the other children got of their father's estate, perhaps because he was a deserter with address unknown. You will also see that Amos Tanner had been married to Mary, by whom he had two children, also that he must have deserted her, as she did not die until 1782. If all this is true, our common ancestor was a character.

Please let me know what you think of my reasoning.

Yours sincerely,

H. C. Burleigh.

Argent, a lion rampant sable.

Argent = Silver. Sable = Black.

Originally from the early Gaelic "BAL" meaning "the top", or the "top of a hill", the name later became Anglo Saxon, and one of the earliest references is to a family or clan of that name seated at Tussingham in the County of Cheshire England, about 950 A.D., where they held vast lands. About that time the family name spread to Boughton, Greenhall, Irby, and Chester, all in the same County. About 1200 A.D., they migrated to Staffordshire and Derbyshire, but it is thought that some of the family joined "STRONGBLO" the EARL OF PEMBROKE, in his invasion of Ireland, in 1167 A.D. This branch played an important cultural role in Ireland's development. The Reverend W. B. Wright published a book in 1908 (York), entitled "Records of the Anglo/Irish families of BALL". They live in Ballsgrove, near Drogheda. Meanwhile the principal branches remained in England, until migration to Canada and America started. One of the first COLONIAL WM. BALL settled in Virginia 1672, and a branch of BALL settled in Upper Canada in 1815 A.D. The motto means "Dignity depends on Virtue".

Hadley-North would like reference to identity of John as father of Richard North. <sup>(? revised)</sup>

Susannah North was dau. of Richard Savage, Gen. Dict. 3:289, says Richard North, Salisbury 1640, was one of first proprietors; removed to Salem; made will 1649, mentioned Susanna. He says also Susannah mar. George Martin of Salisbury.

This will made Richard North's widow Ursula residual heir & sole executrix. She in turn left her estate to Mary Winsley, dau of Richard's dau. Mary who mar. Thos. Jones. Mary Winsley, as Mary Jones, had witnessed the will of her grandfather, Jan. 26, 1649. An attempt to break Ursula's will was made by Susannah Martin ne
North. (Norfolk Co. Court Rec. Vol 1, pp 9, 10) R. G. H.

Times, Sep. 30, 1944, make the same error. Susannah North, dau. of Richard and wife of George Martin, was not dau. of Richard North's second wife Ursula. His first wife's name seems not to have been found. Richard's will dated Jan. 26, 1648, gave to "my daughter, Mary Jones, the wife of Thomas Jones" and bequests to other children, and made his wife Ursula residual legatee and sole executrix

Thomas Bradbury, recorder at Salem, said that "Mary Jones (this was dau. of Mary Jones above) ye now wife of Nathaniel Winsley" attested it to be the last will and Testament of Richard North of Salisbury late deceased. In Ursula's will she left her estate to Mary, wife of Nathaniel Winsley (granddaughter of her husband Richard North). Mary's aunt, Susannah, who had mar. George Martin brought suit to obtain part of her father's estate from her niece, Mary (Jones) Winsley. See Norfolk Co. Court Rec. Vol 1. pp 9, 10. "Nathaniel Winsley answered the complaint of George + Susannah Martin that Ursula was Richard Martin's second wife and not the mother of his children. Our grandfather was low in ye world in his first wife's time, their mother, but in his latter wife's days through her toiling and God's blessing his estate mending, he had good cause to make her his executrix and she bestowed the estate upon his grandchild, Mary Winsley."

President, Upper Canada Genealogical Society
Bath, Ontario, Canada

My dear Mr. Burleigh,-

I received your letter of September 20th, with enclosed Papers, just about the time a Grippe Germ laid me low, and left me with various illnesses; so I am sorry, but my work and Correspondence had to be neglected.

About the Ancestors you ask about- I have never happened to run across any of them in my Vermont research, so, of course have no Notes about them.

Amos Martin

If he was in St. Johns Quebec in 1784, of course he was not available for the first U.S. Census in 1790. Although he may have been the Amos Martyn you found listed as serving in the Revolutionary War at Brattleboro, Windham Co., Vt. in 1782, he may have changed his Political views and fled to Canada- I occasionally run across such cases. But he may have been from New Hampshire-Derryfield- as you suggest and merely marched to Brattleboro with his Company.

Yes Manchester N.H. was called Derryfield. It was originally called "Harrytown" or "Old Harry Town", then "Tyng's Town" and in 1751 was incorporated as Derryfield.

The 1800 Census of Shaftsbury, Bennington Co., Vt/ gives---

Mashier Martin 1 male & 1 fem. ae. 45 "and upwards"
Mashier Martin Jr. 1 male & 1 fem ae. 16-26; 1 fem. ae. under 10 yrs.
Aaron Martin 1 male & 1 fem. ae 16-26; 1 male & 1 fem. ae. under 10 yrs;
1 fem. ae. 10-16 yrs
Ebenezer Martin 1 male ae. 45 plus; 1 male & 4 fem. ae. under 10 yrs;
1 fem. ae. 16-26 yrs; 1 male ae. 26-45

The only Tanners in the 1800 Census of Vermont are-Josiah Tanner of Clarendon, Rutland Co., 1 male & 1 fem ae. 26-45; 2 males & 1 fem. ae. under 10 yrs; 1 male ae. 10-16 yrs.
William Tanner of Pownal, Bennington Co., 1 male & 1 fem. ae. 26-45; 2 fem. ae. under 10 yrs; 1 male ae. 10-16 yrs.

I would suggest you write to Mrs. Franklin C. Thompson, 19 Clarke Street, Concord New Hampshire. Mrs. Thompson does most of my New Hampshire work for me. She is an Official in the Historical Society Library at Concord and a careful and good Genealogist. Most New Hampshire Town records are on file at the State house at Concord, and they have quantities of early Manuscripts and records at the Historical Society' Library.

Did you ever try the Pension Bureau at Washington D.C. to find whether any Amos Martin or his family applied for a Pension for Rev. War Service? Those Pension applications often contain a lot of valuable information.

Have you tried the Vital records in the Secretary of State's Office at Montpelier Vt.? All VT. Town Clerks are supposed to have sent certified Copies of all Births marriages and deaths (also sometimes-but not always Cemetery records) to the above Office.

The Clerks will search a few but not many records. I have Mrs. Cora B. Hawes 9B Academy Street, Barre Vt. do this work up there for me. She is good and not expensive.

Burley-Barligh-Burleigh

No persons under any of the above spellings listed in Vt. 1790 &
1800 Censuses.

Freemans may have settled in Amenia (originally Nine Partners)
Dutchess Co., N.Y., but they were originally a Cape Cod (Mass.) Family.
Some of them settled in Mansfield Conn.

The Magazine "Mayflower Descendant" would probably have a good deal on Freemans- also Mansfield Conn. Vital records which are in print.

Randolph- Powell.

I have nothing on these names. I know Argyle, Washington Co., N.Y. was settled by Scottish emigrants.

The Manuscript room at the N.Y. State Library-Washington Ave.-
Albany N.Y. has a good deal of material on Washington County- but I know of no one there- aside from the Librarians looking up a few Problems*- to search these Papers.

New York Towns kept no Vital records until 1880, but all records copied by Patriotic Societies (D.A.R., S.A.R., Colonial Dames etc) are on file there; also original and Photostatic copies of early Church records. The Dutch Churchs and Quakers kept wonderful records. The problem on those is that the Dutch Church records are not indexed; the records in Dutch with Christian names in Latin (usually). So it means just slogging through them page by page. But these records do not merely cover the Dutch and Quakers, but a lot of people in the Area served by the Church. In the case of the Dutch-Baptisms, marriages etc.

Yes Argyle, Washington County New York was settled by Scottish Immigrants. It was named for the Duke of Argyle-patent granted May 21, 1764; town founded 1786. Greenwich taken off in 1803; Fort Edward in 1818

Several years ago I did a lot of work for Dr. Selim MacArthur - the famous Chicago Surgeon, now retired- on his MacArthurs.

He sent me "The History of the Somanuk United Presbyterian Church" publ. in 1928 by Jennie M. Patten & Andrew Graham

This lists Passengers from Islay (Scotland) with Capt. Laughlin Campbell bound for New York, July 1738, (of course we only copied the MacArthurs)

Lists of Passengers brought from Scotland by Capt. Laughlin Campbell 1738-40, list probably prepared in 1763--etc.

All these Passengers settled at Argyle N.Y. and of course there may be information about your Randolphs in these.

I do not know where this Somanuk Church record is located. But it is signed (the copy) by Miss Elizabeth Horton, Genealogist, 12 Grove Street, Middletown Conn. If you are interested you could try to contact Miss Horton. I also do not have Miss Patten's address, but perhaps could get that from Dr. MacArthur. A Note at the end, states that Miss Patten has over 2000 Gravestone Inscriptions from Washington County N.Y.

Dr. MacArthur thinks there is some connection between this Argyle Patent and the Robert Livingston Grant around Hudson N.Y. The Dyke of Argyle was Hereditary Head of the MacArthur Clan, most of whom lived around Glennochie, Argyleshire- so your Randolphs may have come from the same Scottish Area.

I find a Note of "Passengers List Port Greenock June 19, 1775, Brigantine "Commerce" Perthshire to N.Y., and think we also found other Ships lists from Scotland- but do not seem to find the Notes on those.

- - - - -

As you probably know, Land records are often great sources of information- I find I get more from those than Vital records (of which there is quite a dearth) particularly in New York State.

I recently spend hours going through the Shaftsbury Vt. land records, and do not recall the name Martin among them, but some of them must have lived there. And of course I was not looking for them.

You surely have courage to try to start an Historical Society, particularly in these upset days. We, here in "The States" who are interested in History and Genealogy, feel pretty depressed over the attitude of the younger Generation towards History and the part their Ancestors played in it. I think the Schools and Colleges are greatly to blame for this, as they have not encouraged History Courses-my own son who went to one of the best "Prep" Schools and Yale University, was put through courses in what they called "Social Science". But I understand now they are beginning to encourage and teach History courses again.

So many people seem to have the idea that anyone interested in their Ancestors are just snobs trying to acquire a fine background for themselves- and as we know such is far from the case.

Incidentally didn't Dr. Demorest tell me that your Rose family came from Bennington and that vicinity?

When I was working in the Shaftsbury records (Town adjoining and North of Bennington) I ran across a Deed (Vol. 1p. 16) in which Thomas Rose of Norwich, New London Co., Conn. sold Shaftsbury land to John Holly (name later spelled Hawley) of Preston, New London Co., Conn. 4 Sept. 1779. And another Deed- (Vol. 1, p/ 33 Thomas Rose of Norwich Conn, sold Shaftsbury land to Asa Rose of Norwich Conn. 4 Sept. 1779

Both Deeds had the same dates and Witnesses-Elijah Lathrop & Peleg Minor.

The reason I am interested is that one of these Holly-Hawleys married a Rose, and I wonder if she was not a daughter of Thomas Rose of Norwich Conn.

The Holly- Hawleys came from Preston Conn. and settled in Shaftsbury -for a time, later moving on to Western N.Y. State.

I know these Manchester Roses came from Nine Partners (Amenia) Dutchess Co., N.Y., but may have been originally from Norwich Conn.

Some of the Manchester Rose family (Notably Samuel Jr.) were strong Tories. Samuel Rose Sen. seems to have kept out of trouble-at any rate he left quantities of land here when he died, but Samuel Jr. had to flee to Canada. One son- Joel- who was married on one of the Roberts here (six of them soldiers in the Rev. War) did serve in the Green Mountain Boys (probably due to his wife's family's influence).

There was an Asa Rose in this family too- think he was "suspect" but died early, so seems to have avoided trouble. A lot of these Roses settled in Canada too.

Well I had a few Tory Ancestors myself! But they seemed to have kept out of trouble

Anything further I can do for you in Vermont, let me know

Sincerely

Grace W. W. Reed

MARTIN GENEALOGY.

Vol. 1.

Compiled by Thomas Arthur Hay.

Saint Martin, Bishop of Tours, was born in Pannonia about the year A.D. 316. He was educated at Pavia; entered the army; first, under Constantine, and afterwards under Julian, the Apostate. On obtaining his discharge, he became a disciple of Hilary, Bishop of Poitiers. He then returned to his native Pannonia, and converted his mother to Christianity; enduring, as a consequence, much persecution from the Arian party, at that time dominant.

In 360, he founded a convent. In 371, he was ordained Bishop of Tours. He died in Touraine about the year 400. The festival of his birth is celebrated on the 11th of November; and, in Scotland, this day still marks the winter term, called Martinmas (the Mass of St. Martin).

Battle Abbey was dedicated to St. Martin. The name Le Sire de L. Martin appears on the Roll of Battle Abbey, dated 1066.

Le Sire Martin de Turon, a man of much wealth, assisted William Duke of Normandy in the conquest of England, from whom he obtained "Combe Martin" and other possessions. Some of his issue, called Fitz Martin, flourished to the height of a Barony, and had in time that title from Barnstaple, Darlington, etc., in Wales.

The ancient "Arms" of the family carry a Mural Crown in the Crest, denoting Roman antiquity.

Arms: Argent, two bars gules.

Crest: Out of a Mural Crown vert, a talbot's head, eared and langued gules Collared of the first.

Motto: Sure and Steadfast.

The Martins of Plymouth, county Devonshire, England, were originally from Kent.

Captain John Martin of Plymouth (undoubtedly an officer of Queen Elizabeth), son of Martin of Martin of Bridgetown, near Totness, sailed around the globe with Sir Francis Drake, leaving Plymouth Nov. 15th, 1577, and returning to the same port Sept. 26th, 1579.

Capt. John Martin married a sister of Sir Julius Caeasr, Kt., who married a daughter of Sir Richard Martin, Lord Mayor of London.

The arms of the Martin family from Plymouth, Devonshire, originally from Kent, were:

Arms: Gules, on a chevron or, three talbots passant sable.

Crest: On a globe or, a falcon rising argent, gorged with a ducal coronet.

Motto: Sure and Steadfast.

In the days of chivalry, Coats of Arms were used to designate pedigree and rank. On the decline of Feudalism, about 1688, and the rise of the Reformation, their significance and value in a measure disappeared. Out stern Pilgrim forefathers denounced in the strongest measures any reference to, or recollection of, what they regarded as relics of former family vanity. So their children and early descendants grew up in ignorance of the Heraldic standing of their ancestry in the mother country.

Secretary of State Office General Index.

Amos Martin of Town of Franklin mar. Roxany Spencer Aug. 23, 1818
by Samuel Hubbard, J.P.

Amos Martin of Vershire; mar. Sept 1, 1812 Sally Dimont by Eben Spencer of Vershire Vt.

There was a William Martin, of London, England, who assisted the Pilgrims in preparing for the first voyage of the Mayflower to this country, but it does not appear that he himself emigrated.

Christopher Martin, his wife and son, Christopher, came over in the Mayflower in 1620, but they all died within a year after landing.

Others, of the name of Martin, followed in each succeeding company for several years, and settled in various parts of the country; among whom was Lieut. Samuel Martin, some of whose descendants we here purpose to enumerate.

1. LIEUT. SAMUEL MARTIN, 1st generation, of New Haven and Wethersfield, Ct., was born in Devonshire, England, and emigrated from Plymouth to America about 1640 to 1645. He married Phebe Bracey, and their son, William, was born on ship board when they came to this country, and was called William Seaborn Martin, is a tradition held persistently by their descendants generally. The recorded facts disprove this tradition, as Phebe Bracey lived in New Haven (a widow) several years prior to her marriage to Samuel Martin. However, the records state that in 1652, Samuel Martin, six years after he married Phebe Bracey, "went to London, England, and returned soon." Presumably, he had gone to visit his wife's father, William Bisby, a wealthy merchant of London. It is hardly supposable that he made the journey without his wife. The records show that Samuel Martin was of too generous a nature to accumulate worldly goods to any great extent, and we would be justified in assuming that his father-in-law supplied the means for the visit, and that he wished to see his daughter. If we can believe that their son, William, was born on the return voyage, in 1653, and called William Seaborn, then the tradition and the recorded facts harmonize. This theory is supported by the fact that no record can be found in New Haven or Wethersfield of the exact date of his birth. Phebe (Bisby) Brace or Bracey, widow of one Bracey, by whom she had five children in England (some of whom came to this country), was the oldest child and daughter of William Bisby, a gentleman of London, who contributed considerable sums of money for assisting emigration to America. "She came to this country in 1642; was at New Haven in 1644." "In 1646, Samuel Martin went from Wethersfield to New Haven, and married widow Phebe Bracey." "In 1647, Samuel and Phebe Bracey (brother and sister Martin) held sittings in the church at New Haven." They removed to Wethersfield in 1647, at which time her father, William Bisby, purchased a house and lot, "in trust for his daughter, Phebe and his son-in-law, Samuel and heirs;" where she lived, and probably died. "In 1648, they contributed to the expense of seating the meeting house in Wethersfield." Samuel Martin went to London, England, in 1652, and returned soon." "In 1660, he was delegated to go to 'The Bay' and fetch the Rev'd Mr. Cotton to Wethersfield, to become pastor of Wethersfield Church." "On Jan. 17th, 1675, he was made a Corporal of dragoons, and served in King Philip's War." "On Dec. 19th, 1675, at the great fort-fight at Kingston, R.I., he earned his Lieutenancy and a bounty of 200 acres of land." He was a man of great executive ability, and was foremost in public affairs in the early settlement of New Haven and Wethersfield. Prior to earning his military titles, he was called Mr. Samuel Martin, a mark of distinction granted only to men of unusual prominence. He died in 1683. They had three sons

In 1670, he furnished many settlers for Stratford plantation, which accounts for his appearance at that place. He was one of forty who were assigned house lots and division lands at Wethersfield previous to King Philip's war, and prior to 1682. He married, June 25th, 1685, Abigail Nichols, daughter of Caleb Nichols and Anne Ward. She was born at Stratford, Conn., Feb. 6, 1664. He removed to Woodbury, and with his wife, Abigail, was admitted to the first church in Woodbury on their arrival there, Aug. 30, 1685. He is on the Woodbury list of 1702, and his rate on April, 1712, was £0:2s:2d<sup>4</sup>. He died at Woodbury July 4, 1715, at the age of sixty-two years, and was buried near the centre of the old burying ground at that place, and stones were set at the head and foot of his grave. In 1854 both of these stones were lying on the ground near the grave. She survived him 20 years. #### NICHOLS FAMILY.

- I. Sergeant Francis Nichols, an original proprietor of Stratford, Conn., was born in England in 1590. He married first, in England, where his three sons and one daughter were born. His wife died in England.

He married second Anna, daughter of Deacon Barnabus Wynes, of Wales, who, with him, came to America in 1635 or 1636, possibly earlier. She survived him, and married second, in 1653, John Elton, a wealthy farmer of Southold, L.I. He died in Southold, and she married third, in 1686, John Tooker, a prominent citizen of Brookhaven, L.I.

In the Spring of 1639, Sergt. Nichols, with sixteen other families, settled on 76,000 acres of land at Cupheag, which was in April, 1643, by General Court order, named Stratford.

He was appointed in October, 1639, by General Court, to train the men and exercise them in military discipline; therefore, he was the first military officer on the plantation.

He is recorded as one of the freeholders and inhabitants of Southold, L.I., in 1647, which was under the jurisdiction of Connecticut, and was known as Yorkshire. He died at Stratford, Conn., in 1650.

Children by first marriage:

Ward Family.

1. Hon. Andrew Ward, Fairfield, Conn., proprietor of Wethersfield, was a son of Richard Ward, of Suffolk, England. He married Esther Sherman, who came to this country with him prior to 1633, at which date he was admitted a freeman of Boston. He is recorded as a freeman of Watertown, May 14, 1634.

In 1635, he and one other were the first settlers of Wethersfield.

The first court of the colony, established March, 1635, consisting of Andrew Ward and seven others, was commissioned by the General Court of Massachusetts "to make and execute laws, and to govern the people of Connecticut for one year."

The General Court of Connecticut, at its first session, held at Newtowne or Hartford April 26, 1636, ratified a dismissal of Andrew Ward and others from the Watertown church, authorizing them "to form anew in a church covenant," in Connecticut.

They established the first church in Wethersfield.

In 1638, he was appointed, with Capt. John Mason and Mr. Allen, to go to Agawam (or Springfield) "to treat with the Indians at Waranoeke, concerning the charges of the Pequot war, to the value of one fathom of wampum a man, etc." He removed to New Haven in June, 1639; was constable of Stamford March 26, 1643.

THE FIFTY YEARS MARRIED; GIFT OF PURSE OF GOLD

Mr and Mrs. Allinson Martin,
Camden Township, Celebrate a Happy Event.

A very wide circle of friends will extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Allison Martin, Camden town-ship, who will, on Sunday, celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. On March 9th, fifty years ago, their marriage took place in the village of Moscow. Mr. Martin is seventy-six years of age and Mrs. Martin is seventy-two. The occasion is being marked by the presentation of a purse of gold to the venerable couple by the members of the family.

Mr. Martin was born and raised on the old homestead and it is of interest to note that members of the family of five generations have lived in this home in Camden township.

S. O. Martin, travelling agent for the Canadian National Express Com-pany, for the Maritime Division, with headquarters at Moncton, N.B., is a son, and Mrs. James Hogle, at home, is a daughter.

Mrs. Martin is a daughter of John Lucas, Moscow, and Mr. Martin a son of James Martin. Both are en-joying good health.

Mr. Martin has one brother, Josh-ua, who is eighty-two years of age and who lives at Syracuse. He vis-its his brother every summer, but owing to the bad crossing on the ice, could not be present for the cele-bration. Mrs. Martin has sisters over the seventy mark and one over eighty years of age is with her sister for her anniversary celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin have been readers of the Whig all their life. The Whig joins with their friends in extending congratulations.

Dear Sir:-

Upon the receipt of your letter of October 10th, a search was made through our records for information concerning the Martin family.

You will find herewith a copy of the census returns (1831), county of Shefford, Lower Canada, in which Simeon and Reuben Martin are mentioned. However, their name does not appear in the 1825 official census taken in Lower Canada.

Believe me,

Yours truly,

Dear Dr. Burleigh;

I am sorry to have been away when you called recently, although I perhaps could not have made any contribution along the line you are seeking. In the memo left for me it seems you are looking for records of Amos Martin, it also states that from 1784-1807 he was in Ont, then returning to the U.S. Taking the date of 1794 this rules out the possibility that he was in these parts of rural Quebec, and his location if in this Prov would <sup>BE</sup> some military post like St. John's, or Montreal and Quebec.

The descendants of Simeon Martin whose will you saw, settled in Shefford Co and apparently not those you seek.

There were many Martins in Missisquoi Co as in my younger days I remember many of this name.

Hist of E.T. by Mrs C.M. Day.

"Township of Stanbridge, Ebenezer Martin built the first tannery here in 1808".
Freemasonry in the Dist of Bedford.

"Stanbridge Lodge, In the list of Charter Members the oldest in masonry was Bro. Ebenezer Martin who had been initiated in Prevost Lodge No. 9. at Frelighsburg on May 4th, 1819".

"He built the first tannery at Stanbridge, and married Hannah, daughter of Judge Solomon Bingham".

If I can assist you in any way do not hesitate to call on me as I have plenty of time and some sources of information.

AMOS MARTIN, Derryfield, 6 mos., 1881. (now Manchester, ~~NA~~)

Bath, Ont., 8 August, 1960.

Mr. Harold E. Martin,
31 Howard Street,
Belleville, Ont.

Dear Cousin:

This is a reply to your letter of 6th inst., relative to the Revolutionary War service of Amos Tanner-Martin.

My interpretation of the data to be found in the Tanner Genealogy and in the Vermont State Papers, as well as the Haldimand Papers (Loyalist) is as follows:

Amos Tanner:

1. Enlisted in the 3rd Connecticut Company on 3 May, 1775, for service at Dunker's Mill, and was discharged 16 Dec., 1775. Until I know better, I will assume that he was actually at Dunker's Mill.
2. Served as a corporal in Capt. Dyer's Company of Col. Lippitt's Regiment from 26 Jan., 1776, to Sept., 1776.
3. Enlisted in Capt. Joseph Parker's Company of Col. Lee's Regiment between 17 March and 7 April, 1778, for three years.
4. Deserted from Col. Lee's Regiment after 7 April, 1778, and re-appeared in Neutral Vermont as Amos Martin. Please note that Vermont was NOT one of the Rebellious States. The Vermont authorities did not make up their mind until 1782, or later, and did not join the United States until 1791.

Amos Martin.

5. 2 day's service in Capt. Ebenezer Morricks Company in assisting the Sheriff in Brattleboro County, Vermont. Among the names of those who participated were:

Capt. Morricks.
Lieut Ward Bager.
Sergeant Amos Martyn (or Master).

6. His name in a list of Officers and Men who marched to Brattleboro in the Muster of Dec. 24, 1782, to suppress Insurrections and Disturbances, under Lieut. Ward Bager.
2 days at 3 shillings per diem 10 miles. 6 shillings.

Refugee Loyalists.

7. There is no record of his having served in the Loyalist forces. There are only two references to him in Canada in the period 1776-1784. They are:
  1. Amos Martin, wife, 2 children provisioned at St. John's, Quebec, in Jan., 1784.
  2. Petition of Men Standing in need of Lands and wish part of lands in Quebec. Jan. 20, 1784.
Moses Martin.
  3. Return of Unincorporated Loyalists & Families at & Dependant on St. John's, Chambly, Isle aux Noix & Dutchman's Point. St. John's, 25 May, 1784.
Amos Martin, wife, 2 children. Hitherto provisioned, has either declined or not appeared to give in his name for the lands proposed by Government.
With him was his brother-in-law, Jacob Ball, wife and one child.

I trust that the above explains the movements of Amos

Dear Cousin:

I had expected before this to have conferred further with you, personally, as to your intensely interesting records and observations, but when I have no car it is not easy to get around as I would like.

Your letter of Nov. 18th. was interesting and I have an idea that you found your trip to the Eastern Townships pleasant and perhaps not unfruitful. A search in the Land Office at Waterloo may still turn up something and perhaps also your correspondence. I will be glad to hear of any more developments in this respect.

To bring my records of your family up to date, perhaps at some convenient time you could give me details of your own children and grandchildren. I have a clipping of the recent wedding of your son John Alan. May I congratulate you on a new daughter-in-law?

In this same letter you have a footnote that Martin's are descended from the Schemerhorn's. I am wondering if this is accurate. According to my records there is no connection except that Hannah (Grange) had as her first husband, Daniel Schemerhorn. Her second husband was Elias Martin a brother of my grandfather, by whom she had five children, and her first son, Reuben Schemerhorn was a half-brother.

Again thanking you for your painstaking inquiries which are, I think, as interesting to me as they are to you.

Yours sincerely,

Harold E. Martin

Dear Cousin:

I have been giving some study to your records of Amos Martin and some points do not seem clear to me.

I was interested in your statement, "He was evidently refused land as Loyalist in 1791." Please let me know if there is definite evidence of this. I have proof that in 1797 he had not only had previously been granted 100<sup>acres</sup> but that he was then granted 200 acres more.

I have no evidence that he ever served in any of the British armed forces, but he is designated in the Petition I have as U E 36. I am enclosing an exact copy of the face of the petition (front page)

It is interesting, also, that you have no reference to his return to Ernesttown in 1819. Apparently he had to return to validate his claim to ownership of land in Richmond that Amos Junior wanted. Following is deposition of Isaac Fraser in support of his presence in Ernesttown on June 1st. 1819 and his ownership of land.

"I certify that Amos Martin, Sen. of the Township of Ernest Town resided many years in that township and made large improvements on two lots of land in the same - and that he was resident in that place on the first instant."

June 28, 1819

Isaac Fraser M. P.

I would be interested ~~XXX~~ in any remarks you may make in regard to his return to Ernesttown in 1818 and 1819. Also as to evidence that he had been refused land in 1791.

Yours sincerely,

H. E. Martin

Dear Sir:-

I would appreciate it very much if you could send me details which you have found about Amos Martin, his early settlement ~~XXX~~ records and descence. Also name and particulars of your great-grandmother who was a sister and the connection down to yourself.

Later on in the season I hope to get to Bath and I would be very glad if I could arrange it with you to make copies of such records as you have which concern my ancestors, Martin's, McKim's, Miller's, Neville's and Empey's.

We have interests in common along these lines and perhaps we can be of mutual assistance. I was pleased, last summer, to learn what I did from you

I am enclosing stamped, addressed envelope for your reply, at your convenience.

Again thanking you,

Yours truly,

Dear cousin:

I was very pleased indeed to receive your recent letter with its listing of descendants of Amos Martin, Senior and the valuable information concerning them. Sometime, when I can arrange to do so, I would like to accept your invitation to look over and discuss your records. I hope to make my records still more complete as to dates and descendants.

Some things in your letter I am not clear about. For instance are the following correct?

- (1) The children of Amos Martin Senior numbered 8 (not counting Simeon). Of these, Annie Martin is the one from whom you are descended, and she married a Percy.
- (2) She had 13 children (Percy family) including Joseph Percy who was your grandfather.
- (3) Your mother's name was Gertrude Percy.

I am enclosing a copy of what I have on record as to Amos Martin, Sen. marking in red, parts which do not quite correspond with your account. Also enclosing a fairly complete listing of descendants of my great grandfather, Amos Martin.

I had traced William Martin (No. 5 in your list) and Elisha Martin (No. 45) in Census records in Ottawa but was not sure they belonged till your data arrived to confirm it.

I am pleased to hear of your searchings in New York, though they have now, apparently, run into a dead end. And I am keenly interested in any records you may find in Brome and Bedford counties in Quebec.

Again thanking you for your very fine assistance,

Yours sincerely,

Harold E. Martin

WARNER A. MARTIN

Warner Aylesworth Martin passed away suddenly at the Bransom Hospital, Willowdale on Tuesday, Dec. 10, 1957

Mr. Martin was the son of Stinson Martin and a grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Allison Martin, Yarker. His mother was the late Bellva Warner of Colebrook who died in 1917.

Warner lived with his grandparents and aunt, Mrs. James Hogle on the homestead at Yarker for a few years after the passing of his mother and had many boyhood friends there.

Later he lived in Montreal with his father and attended Montreal High School and Wickham House. Some years ago he moved to Toronto where for several years remained in the township for a period not exceeding two months and after that time the owners would be prosecuted. The council has to provide education for all children within its borders and this includes children in trailers.

Dr. Rogers asked if these people were living in a trailer camp but was told that they are living on private land and are probably renting from the land owners.

The council decided that the nominations meeting will be held Monday, December 30.

he has been an employee of Smith Transport Company. For several years he has resided at 465 Drewry street, Willowdale.

Funeral service was held at the Kane funeral home, 4812 Yonge street, Dec. 12 and interment was in Westminster Memorial Park Cemetery.

Mr. Martin leaves to mourn a wife, Doris, and son Robert also his grandfather, S. O. Martin, stepmother Margaret and aunts Catherine Hogle, Florence Anderson, Toronto, Georgie Holmes and Mrs. Louis Shorey, Napanee.

Dear Brother Burleigh:-

You will have begun to think that you were not going to get an answer to your letter of Dec. 29th. which was sent to the Secretary of the Masonic Lodge in town. It happens that there are two Lodges here, and the letter was handed to me, and I have been investigating the matter you write about, but without much success.

Brattleboro Lodge #102 was organized in June 16, 1881, and the other Lodge Columbian #36 was chartered on January 9, 1856.

You will note that both of these dates are after 1770 or 1791, and although I have looked over several old records I am unable to find anything to help you.

I would suggest however that you get in touch with Brother Russell Blood, Townshend, Vermont, who is a student of Masonry, and might perhaps know something about the men you have reference to.

The first Lodge in Vermont was chartered in 1791 - No. 1 Dorchester, Vergennes, Vt. .

Sorry that I can't be of any assistance to you, I am

Fraternally yours,

Horace Winchester

Dear Dr. Burleigh:

Our September trip across Ontario was hurried but enjoyable. The part around Bath, Odessa and Kingston, was very interesting to me and I hope to return some day. Rain prevented our getting out and around as much as I wanted to, but that seems to be our standard Canadian weather.

In case you have thought of the Martin-Tanner story since we were there, I will give you a quick run down on Clints line. Quoting from, "William Tanner of North Kingston, R. I., and his Descendents": William; Benjamin; Benjamin; Silas; Harvey; Wealtha Tanner Martin; Frank Martin; Clinton. The last four generations are covered on page 44, # 69 in that book. Silas has been a problem to us but we have recently found him here in a Pioneer Cemetery near by.

And the information on the Johnson story that I could not think of: John Jones, a son of Margaret Tremere Jones, married Amanda Johnson of Bath. She was a niece of William Johnson 'Pirate of the St Lawrence'.

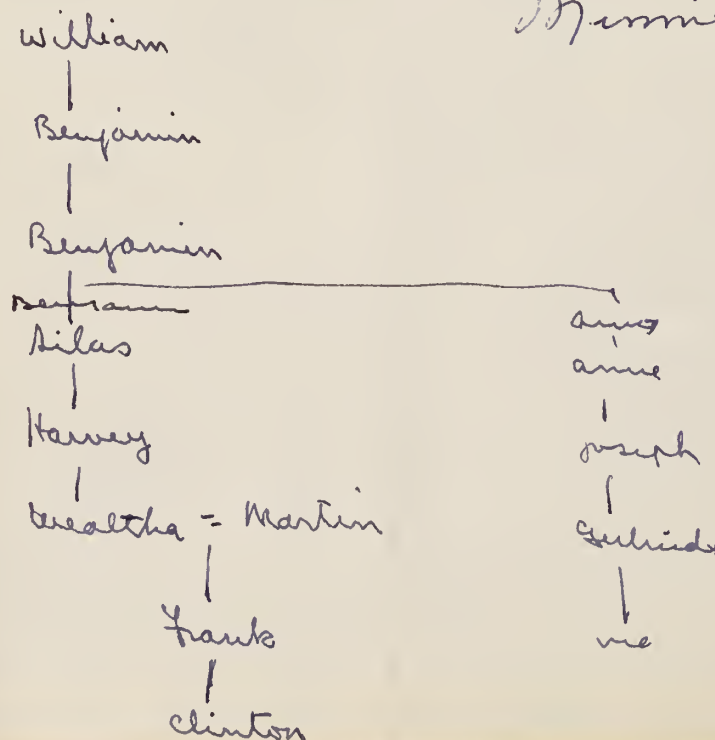

Now with the Presidential election behind us- we here in the states can go on wildly spending money until our debts catch up with us. The only thing we are relieved of is the political talk on TV and radio.

Thank you for the time spent with my husband and I and for directing us on the drive along the bay and back to highway along the mill stream route. We also took the drive to see where the Tremeres might have lived. It was a pleasure meeting you and your wife.

Put the enclosed on the dash of your car and let him direct you and Mrs. Burleigh to the "Kingdom of the Sun" in Marion County, Florida. Next to Bath, Ontario it is the best place to spend the cold winter months.

With very best wishes to you both, I am Sincerely

Minnie Tremere Martin

History of Brome County.

Vol. 11 (unbound)

Zelotes E. Martin was born May 26, 1862, in West Bolton, the son of the late Benjamin John Martin and his wife, Rachel Tibbits. His father belonged to a family of sturdy pioneers in the Eastern Townships. There were two other sons and seven daughters who lived to grow up and become active and respected members of Society. Zelotes attended the Brill School and later the Knowlton Academy. After arriving at majority he ambitiously set out for the "Windy City" of the American West and in 1884 we find him associated with a small paint manufactory operated by Mr. Senour. This was one of fourteen paint factories then in operation in Chicago. Into this small business he threw ~~the~~ power of his initiative and energy bred in the hills of his native land, and now the factories of Martin-Senour Co. are found at strategic points in the large cities of Canada and the United States. He has never lost interest in his Canadian home. He has ably supported public efforts for the improvement of the locality of his early days. He is an Honorary President of the Brome County Historical Society. He paid the entire cost of the annex to the County Museum to house the war trophies collected by his schoolmate, the late Senator G. G. Foster.

Benjamin Martin raised a family of three sons and seven daughters, not far from the Brill Church. One of the sons, Zelotes Martin, has been very successful as a manufacturer of paint, being the head of the Martin-Senour Paint Co. of Chicago, with branches in different cities of Canada and the United States.

One of Benjamin Martin's daughters is Mrs. Jason Marsh of Knowlton. A granddaughter, Miss Booth, is the wife of Inspector Wells, successor of Rev. E. M. Taylor.

Mrs. Wells is grandniece of the late J. R. Booth, the "Lumber King" of Ottawa.

wife of Theodore (son of Elias)
1st cousin of Mrs
Douglas Smider

settled near Kingston Mills, likely in Pittsburgh Township, Frontenac County.

18 November 1796.

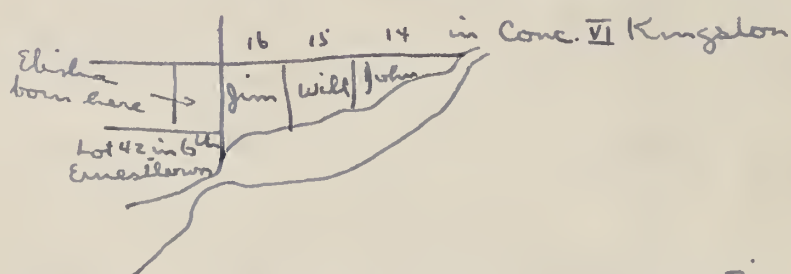

It is found in the supplementary list, as 'Martina, Amos-wife and three children provisioned at Johnstown (base of Prescott)'. This must have been in 1794-5-6. This means that he may have resided in the Prescott area for a time. I might add that none of his children applied for lands as the children of a U. S. but this is not exceptional. I have found the same thing in other definite U. S. L. families.

On the strength of that statement, namely, Amos Martin, U. S. in the application of 1797, any of his descendants may be claimed as U. S. That brings up the matter of the recent formation of the U. S. L. Branch of the U. S. L. Association. A group of interested persons formed the Branch in April last. We now have ninety members and are looking for more. The annual fee is $2.00, and members may be Regular and Associate. The last applies to persons not claiming U. S. descent. Regular meetings have been at Colborne's. The next meeting is at Victoria on 2 January next, and the meeting in March will be in your city. In case you are interested in becoming a member, I am enclosing application forms. If application is made, please forward it, with two dollars, to Miss Edith M. Allison, Box 342, Victoria, B.C.
